

CHILLI THE VAMPIRE OPOSSUM
STORY DRAFT

IN THE BEGINNING

On June 6th, 1966, in the small town of Heart Attack Cove, a mysterious explosion occurred in the local grocery store, Pablos' Goods and Foods. Nobody was injured. After an intense investigation, a source for the explosion could not be identified.

Unbeknownst to the small cove, the explosion caused an opening between our dimension and one not too far away from ours. Both dimensions began to leak into each other, causing some strange activities to start occurring in the cove.

This includes portals opening from Hell.

ONE DAY

Three years ago, a portal from Hell, colloquially known as a "hellhole", opened up on the beach. Two demons by the names of Dracula and Didelphis emerged from the portal, intending to wreak havoc on the small cove for nothing else but their own amusement.

Dracula was already well known in Heart Attack Cove. He had visited multiple times in the past, mostly to look for new victims, but sometimes just to mess around and freak the residents out. He currently has a warrant for his arrest, but that hasn't deterred him.

Didelphis was a little more of a rookie compared to Dracula. He had only been up to the surface a couple of times, and he has yet to snag a victim. While a bite from Dracula turns the victim into a vampire, a bite from Delelphis turns the victim into an opossum.

On this particularly rainy day, nine-year old Chilli Colde just so happened to be waiting at the bus stop, when the two demons quietly walked up to her. After she was knocked unconscious, Dracula bit Chilli on her left arm. As she was in the process of transforming into a vampire, Didelphis also bit Chilli, in the right arm. This altered the transformation, and afterwards, she had become a vampire opossum.

PRESENT DAY

Heart Attack Cove has always had issues fending off against strange creatures and monsters, not just demons from Hell. To make use of her vampire opossum powers, Chilli, along with her friends Anna and Tammy (who also goes by Thomas), vow to protect the cove from evil monsters, and help out any other monsters who aren't looking for trouble.

MAIN CHARACTERS

CHILLI - Chilli is an adventurous, tough troublemaker who can sometimes get way over her head. After the incident three years ago that left her as a vampire opossum, she makes it her duty to protect the town of Heart Attack Cove. Unfortunately, this can sometimes come at the cost of her mental health, and may have to be reminded to put herself first over everything. Chilli never backs down from a fight, which can often put her in extremely dangerous situations. But to her, if it means she can protect the town or a loved one, she'll do whatever it takes.

ANNA - Anna is kind, good-hearted, and absolutely exhausted. Being Chilli's best friend, they have to deal with a lot of her shit, but they never see it as a burden; they just want to help their friend out. They often tag along on Chilli's adventures, and they have the scars to prove it. Despite how much they go through, they still have a positive attitude. They're very active around the town, such as attending town meetings, and helping out at the town garden.

TAMMY - Tammy is the chill (heh) one of the trio, and often has to balance out Chilli and Anna's hyper personalities. They are very laid back, which can make it hard for them to express their emotions. For the last year, they have been practicing witchcraft from a book that fell on them during a heavy storm. They don't tag along on every one of Chilli's adventures, but when they do, they use their witchcraft skills to help Chilli out of any jam she might get herself into.

OTHER CHARACTERS

SYNTH - Bitch. She thinks she's more popular than she actually is. She used to be Chilli's best friend before she turned into a vampire opossum.

HAROLD - Chilli's father. Sometimes tags along with adventures with her. He's anxious 24/7 but is still supportive of her daughter.

MX.GEO - Chilli's teacher. They work three jobs a week, and they rarely have time for themselves. Despite how much Chilli stresses them out, they still defend her from snarky teachers cracking jokes at her expense.

BLOOD EYE - Mysterious dude who lives in his car that has a giant eyeball painted on its side. He might be involved with the 1966 explosion, but no one's really sure.

WITCH CLUB - Consists of four members.

- a. TAMMY - see above.
- b. SIONA - Leader. Very Strict. Allergic to peanuts.
- c. DILLON - Super smart. Comes up with plans. Very clumsy.
- d. TUESDAY - Fighter. Blood-thirsty. Super sweet.

REEHA - Goth. They like to listen to loud music. Write poems, and make loud artwork. They are good friends with Anna, and the two usually attend the weekly Heart Attack Cove Poetry Night together.

MAYOR JEFFERSON - Corrupt mayor. They commonly exploit Chilli and her image to use to advertise events in the cove.

BIRGUS HETTA - Synth's father. Owns many businesses in the cove, many of which use Chilli as a mascot. He is super rich, and exploits others for his own benefit.
